CBA Elects New Board Members for 2008

Lexington, KY—February 18, 2008—The Consignors and Commercial Breeders Association (CBA) recently elected Darrell Brown, of Stonereath Farm; Neil Howard, of Gainesway Farm; and Martha Jane Mulholland, of Mulholland Springs; to the association's board of directors.

Incumbent board members gaining re-election for the 2008-2009 term include Robbie Lyons, of Hartwell Farm; Joe Seitz, of Brookdale Farm; Mark Taylor, of Taylor Made Farm; and Rob Whiteley, of Liberation Farm.

The association holds elections each February for an alternating six and seven vacant seats on the thirteen member board of directors.

The recently elected board members will join Craig Bandoroff, of Denali Stud; Kerry Cauthen, of Four Star Sales; Mike Cline, of Lane's End Farm; John Stuart, of Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services; Dermot Ryan, of Ashford Stud; and Bayne Welker, of Mill Ridge Farm—all of whom were elected last year.

The CBA is a trade organization with over 250 members. The association's membership accounts for over 75 percent of the annual auction revenue in North America, as either breeder or consignor.

The CBA works democratically on behalf of every consignor and commercial breeder, large and small, to provide representation and a constructive, unified voice related to sales issues, policies, and procedures. The association's initiatives are designed to encourage a fair and expanding marketplace for all who breed, buy, or sell thoroughbreds.

The association, which was founded in 2005, is based in Lexington, Kentucky. For more information please visit www.consignorsandbreeders.com.
